

Turn Key Projects

Benefits

- Water professional expertise.
- Technical approach.
- Water treatment operation experience:
 - Drinking water
 - Water wells
 - Wastewater
 - Water reuse
- Project management strategies.
- Environmental permitting requirements.

Twenty-eight years of successful experience in the water industry, provides ETAG Corporation with the capability to assist our clients in the planning and execution of water treatment projects. The combination of our technical staff and experienced multidisciplinary associated resources can take care of your drinking water, wastewater treatment or water reuse projects. For more information about our Turn Key Project services, you can visit our company success stories or request more information about this service.